Vol. 10, p. 1172; Vol. 12, p. 658.

SEC. 2. Any and all claims against the United States within the purview of this Act shall be forever barred unless suit be instituted or petition filed as herein provided in the Court of Claims within three years from the date of the approval of this Act, and such suit shall make the Winnebago Indians, or any band thereof, party plaintiff and the United States party defendant. The petitions shall be verified by the attorney or attorneys employed to prosecute such claim or claims under contract with said Winnebago Indians approved in accordance with existing law; and said contract shall be executed in their behalf by a committee or committees to be selected by said Winnebago Indians as hereinafter provided. Official letters, papers, documents, and records, or certified copies thereof, may be used in evidence, and the departments of the Government shall give access to the attorney or attorneys of said Winnebago Indians to such treaties, papers, correspondence, and records as they may require in the prosecution of any suit instituted under this Act.

Time for filing suit.

Verification.

Evidence admitted.

SEC. 3. In said suit or suits the court shall hear, examine, and adjudicate any claims which the United States may have against said Winnebago Indians, and any payment, including gratuities, which the United States may have made to said Indians prior to the date of adjudication, shall not operate as an estoppel but may be pleaded as an offset in such suit.

Consideration of counterclaims.

SEC. 4. If it be determined by the court that the United States in violation of the terms and provisions of any law, treaty, Executive order, or agreement as provided in section 1 hereof, has unlawfully appropriated or disposed of any money or other property belonging to the Indians, the damages therefor shall be confined Decision of court that money, etc., have been unlawfully taken, etc., confined to the value at time thereof.
